Wednesday Conferences

Second Series

THE following series of Conferences will be given at the Museum during January and February on Wednesdays, at 3 P. M. Admission to each series will be by card, to be obtained on application to Miss Margaret L. Wheeler, Assistant in Instruction, enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope.

Indian Art.

Dr. Ananda Coomaraswamy, Keeper of Indian Art.

January 17. The Beginnings of Indian Art.

January 24. Recent Accessions of Indian and Persian Art.

January 31. Indian Iconography.

These Conferences will be illustrated by lantern slides.

Chinese and Japanese Art.

Mr. J. E. Lodge, Curator of Chinese and Japanese Art.

February 7, 14 and 21. The purpose of these Conferences will be to discuss the arts of China and neighboring countries with the least possible reference to current taste in such matters and with the utmost stress on the thought and culture of which these arts were one form, at least, of expression or statement. The first Conference will be general in scope; the second and third more particular and illustrative.
